MVP

The MVP which we want to at the end of project, an Android application which allow the customers registering to the our system. After registering operation, users can login and share their photos with current locations. Also user can see the other user's photos which are shared nearby. In addition to this, user can register the system via our app's web-site.